Entrust your compressor maintenance

We will treat your compressor as if it were ours

We will assume 100% of the maintenance responsibility and oversee the performance of your compressor as if we owned it.

Proper maintenance practices are key to uninterrupted service from your Sullair compressor. We can provide a maintenance program that can avoid unexpected production losses from compressor failure and downtime. This peace of mind is available at a fixed cost that you can anticipate during this extended term agreement.

All of our services and functional tests will be identified to ensure that your compressor performs in compliance with manufacturers operating and maintenance instructions.

nce to our skilled service technicians

Consumable components from air intake filters, to compressor fluid, to separator elements are replaced in accordance with the manufacturers' specifications. Our agreement also included is labor and travel.

Written Report

When we've completed each scheduled maintenance, you'll receive a comprehensive field service report on your compressors and commentary on the other equipment in the compressed air system.

Compressor History

Because we are partners, we will keep you updated on the maintenance history of your system. We will also advise you of the general environmental conditions that may impact the life of your compressed air system.
